A photograph of a desert canyon with layered rock formations and a winding trail. The rock walls show distinct horizontal and wavy sedimentary patterns in shades of red, orange, and purple. A narrow trail winds through the canyon, and a small bridge is visible in the distance under a clear blue sky.

Please note that any discrepancies such as US Post office hour changes, prices, businesses closed or burned down is way beyond our control. If you discover changes, please send us information via email (yeti1938@gmail.com). This will help us to keep this guide up to date as best as possible. All tracks and waypoints can be found at www.fultek.com/hdt. Trail closures, fires, or storms that blow down a lot of trees can and will happen. If you can, track anything you find different or just describe the differences and send those to the above email address. Tracks should be in GPX form.

We will post a new version online at www.fultek.com/hdt after we add any changes we get from other hikers or from what we gather ourselves. This is free of charge, in fact everything on the site is free of any charges.

We are a short 2 miles away from The Needles District of Canyonlands visitor center and 1.5 miles away from the Needles District of Canyonlands NP entrance with some of the best hikes around, 1.5 HOURS from MOAB, 2 hours from Island in the Sky District of Canyonlands NP. We are 37 miles from Hwy 191. No public transportation . The hiking trails in the park are a few miles away. You are welcome to climb the red rock back drop inside our campground with knowledge of the cryptobiotic soil which you can find on our fun facts page. We have unleaded gasoline only available, no diesel. YOU DO NOT NEED 4WD to get to our campground. IT IS STRONGLY ADVISED YOU TAKE A SCREENSHOT OF THESE WRITTEN DIRECTIONS because you will lose service on you way down the canyon. Often times GPS will drop guests 10+ miles up the road. DO NOT RELY ON GPS. Thank you.

Traveling south from Moab:

Take 191 S. for approximately 37 miles, turn R onto US Hwy 211. (This is not the turn that says Needles Overlook but the next right a couple of miles past that road)

Traveling north from Monticello:

Take 191 N. for 15 miles, turn L onto US Hwy 211 (If you see the road for Needles Overlook you have passed us by a couple of miles)

Cont. from 191

Drive down 211 for 12 miles and stop at Newspaper Rock if you have time, otherwise keep driving approximately 22 miles further past Newspaper Rock.

You will see the sign saying Entering Canyonlands National Park. We are about 1 mile past that sign on the right. You will then see our sign for the Outpost on the right before our private road.

Mike talked to the Kate at the Hite Outpost (used to be a marina but the lake dried up) 3/12/2020.

She is very friendly and helpful. They have a shelf for Hayduke packages.

Address like this:

"Your Name"

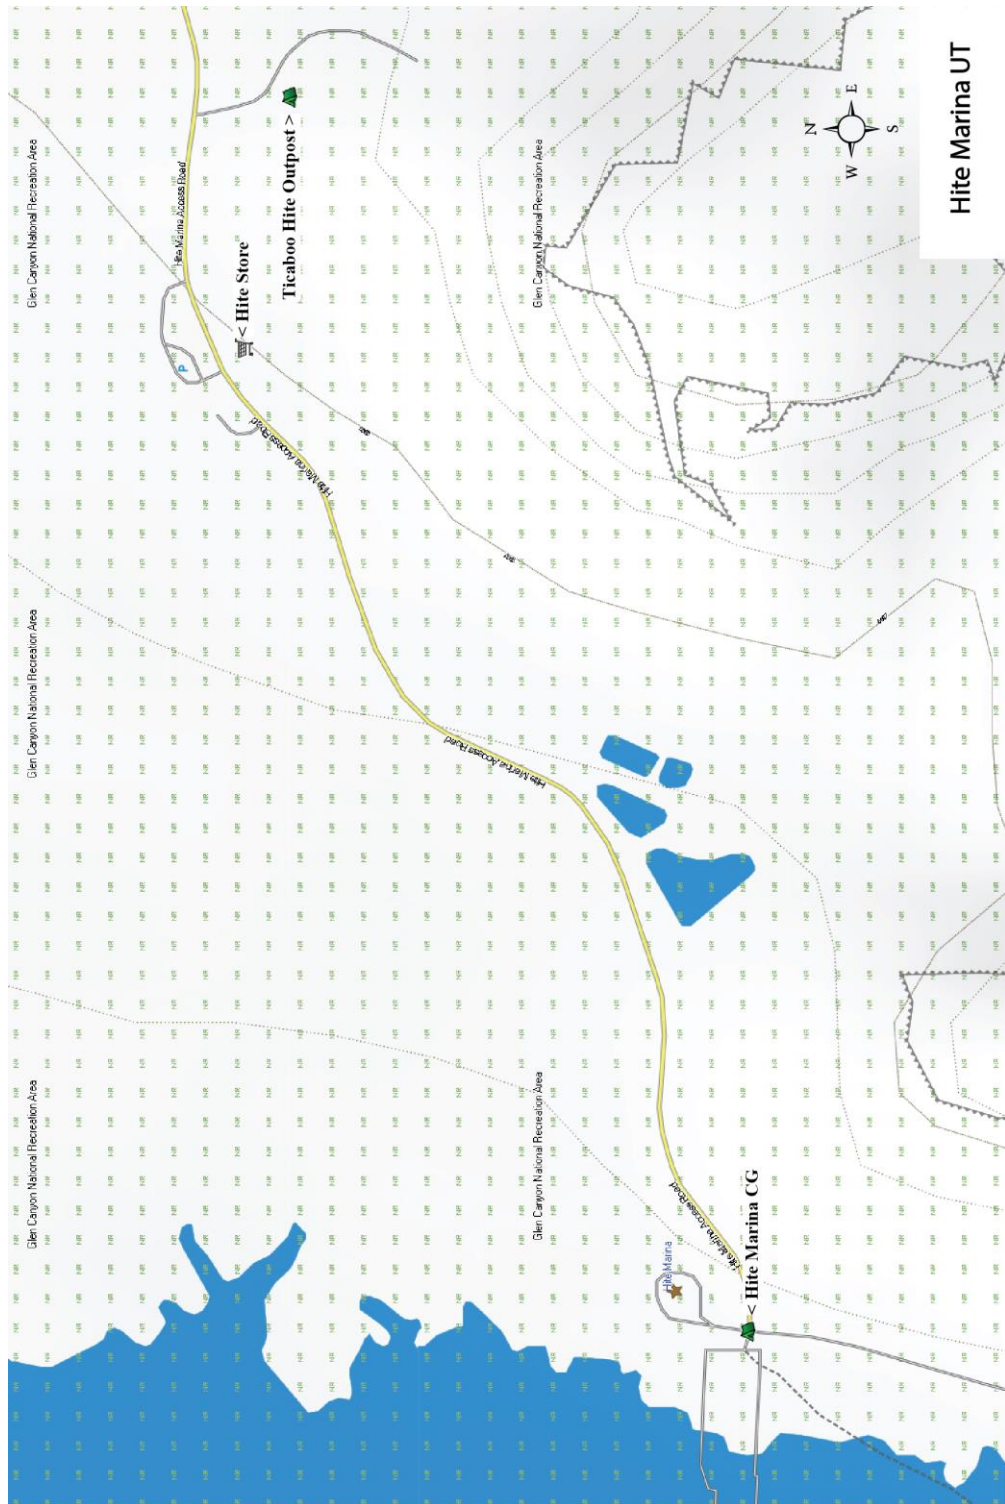

Hite Outpost

1 Hite Marina Road

Hite, Utah 84533

She asks that all boxes be labeled "Hayduke Hiker" on the sides.

They do not have hot food, and she said the shelves were pretty bare, and they were expecting to order soon, but it would mostly be snacks. Their hours are 10 to 4 every day. The gas station is always open, pay by card at the pump.

About Authors

AUTHOR NAMES are: Jim “Yeti” Fulmis & Melanie Simmerman

Jim “Yeti” Fulmis has hiked the Pacific Crest Trail (PCT) twice, the Continental Divide Trail (CDT), Pacific Northwest Trail (PNT), The John Muir Trail (JMT) 22 times, The Idaho Boundary Trail (IBT) some parts twice, plus many more smaller trails. Yeti was born in 1938 and is still rock climbing, hiking, skiing, and enjoying other outdoor activities. Yeti acquired his trail name in 1973 while hiking in a snow storm wearing shorts and a “T” shirt, when asked if he was cold and answering no, everyone started calling him the abominable snow man which is the “Yeti”. That stuck, and he is called Yeti now by everyone even his wife.

Yeti

About Melanie

In 1996, I thru-hiked the Appalachian Trail – Melanie’s big adventure! That did it; I was hooked. I’ve gone on to hike the PCT and the CDT, attaining the long distance hiker’s Triple Crown. I completed my PNT adventure in 2015. In 2016, I added the Idaho Boundary Trail to my list of long-distance hikes completed. It’s a 2,500-mile route that Yeti and a friend of his created. As other long-distance hikers, I’ve felt the highs of the mountains and the lows of the valleys; but I would not have missed a day of those journeys. Simply put, I feel most alive on the trail.
